Full schedules for all channels are available at gbh.org/schedule
GBH invites you to participate in virtual or in-person events to learn something new, enjoy a reading with an exciting author, or talk with other top-notch talent. You can also visit our GBH Boston Public Library Studio to see a live taping or attend other community happenings.

⇒ Why Do We Need Art Museums?
Are art museums simply a collection of beautiful and interesting works or are they actually critical components of an educated and civilized society? In this recorded presentation by Natalie Dykstra, author of the Isabella Stewart Gardner biography Chasing Beauty, learn whether Gardner was doing essential work for cultural education or satisfying her own wanderlust.
⇒ Stream here.

⇒ Returning This Fall: Stories from the Stage
Stories from the Stage will return for its eighth season this fall, giving storytellers a platform to share their experiences, making us laugh, cry, and connect with one another. Watch our events page for more information
⇒ Watch past episodes.

⇒ When Women Ran Fifth Avenue
Tue (8/6) at 6pm ET (Virtual)
Join author Julie Satow and Peabody Essex Museum fashion curator Petra Slinkard as they discuss Satow’s book about the golden age of American department stores and the women who led them. This event is held in partnership with American Ancestors and Boston Public Library.
⇒ Register here.

⇒ Craft Beer Tasting with This Old House
Thu (9/19) at 7pm ET (Virtual)
Join us for a 90-minute tasting experience hosted by This Old House’s Kevin O’Connor and Charlie Silva, along with beer expert Hal Mooney. Guests will receive a kit including four craft beers to try as they learn about the history and process of creating these brews and listen to This Old House anecdotes.
⇒ Register here by August 20.
