AT-LARGE CANDIDATE QUESTIONNAIRE: Clifton A Braithwaite

1. What letter grade would you give Mayor Wu at this point in her tenure?
   B-

2. What's the best thing the council did this term, and what's the biggest mistake it made?
   Community choice Energy and not working together as a body.

3. What's the first piece of legislation you'd file next term?
   Re investing in our public schools.

4. Do you support building a new recovery campus at the edge of Franklin Park?
   No

5. Is there anything the city should be doing differently to address the intersecting crises at Mass and Cass?
   The governor should make a state of emergency. And use some of the closed military bases.

6. Do you support plans to move the John D. O'Bryant to West Roxbury?
   No

7. Was the council's approval of $3.4 million in grant funding for the Boston Regional Intelligence Center the right move?
   Yes, The only thing I would look at is to make sure that the money that's alligated goes in the right places.

8. The council has become increasingly acrimonious in the last two years. Who or what is responsible?
   Working together as the body. It's very important because the constituents of our community expect better from us.

9. What else should voters know about you?
   I am committed to making a better Boston. Listening to the castituents and the people who voted me in.

Dear Boston Community,
It is an honor to address you all as I announce my candidacy for public office. As a lifelong activist, I have been devoted to serving and advocating for those in need. I have witnessed firsthand the issues facing our community, and I recognize the need for change.

My platform is centered around strengthening our community through equality, justice, and transparency. I believe that every individual deserves to thrive and reach their full potential, regardless of their background or circumstances. My goal is to create a community that prioritizes the welfare of every member, from the poorest and most marginalized to the most affluent.

I am dedicated to working with you all to provide access to crucial resources, promote social justice, and protect the rights of every citizen. I will fight for affordable housing, improved healthcare, quality education, sustainable economic opportunities, and much more.

I am committed to transparency, accountability, and integrity, and I will make sure that every decision made in public office is made with the best interests of our community in mind.

Boston, I am here to serve you, to fight for you, and to make sure our city is a place where everyone can thrive. Together, we can make a positive impact on our community and continue to create a brighter future for generations to come.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Clifton A Braithwaite Candidate for Boston City Councilor At-Large