Mr Bates vs The Post Office

Based on a true story, this series presents one of the greatest miscarriages of justice in British legal history. When money started to seemingly disappear from its local branches, the government-owned Post Office wrongly blamed its own managers for losses actually caused by a defective computer system. For more than a decade, hundreds were accused and lives, marriages, and reputations were left in ruins. In this David versus Goliath fight for justice, ordinary people battled seemingly insurmountable odds to right horrific wrongs. Toby Jones stars as the titular Alan Bates.

Undercover

For 20 years, Maya Cobbina (Sophie Okonedo, left) defended Rudy Jones (Dennis Haysbert, pictured), a man imprisoned and scheduled for execution for a murder he didn't commit. When Maya is promoted to director of public prosecutions, she is committed to uncovering the truth about past injustices. However, Maya's husband Nick Johnson (Adrian Lester) has a hidden past that could destroy their entire world. To what lengths is he willing to go to keep this secret?

INDEPENDENT LENS

One with the Whale

On the tiny Bering Sea island of St. Lawrence, Alaska, whale hunting is an important part of the subsistence lifestyle of the Yupik people. When a shy teen becomes the youngest in the village to harpoon a whale to help feed his community, his family celebrates on social media. They did not expect the brutal response from animal rights activists from across the country and the ways that people would misunderstand the importance of their community's Indigenous traditions.

Fire Tender

Margo Robbins (above right) is a grandmother, cultural educator, healer, and Indigenous fire practitioner. She is fighting for the Yurok Tribe's right to utilize fire for tribal land stewardship. For more than 100 years, environmentally devastating anti-fire policies have put Yurok lands at risk.

Robbins hopes to protect the lands and to open access to the natural resources needed for clean water, foodstuff, and materials for the tribe's traditional lifeways.
